CITIZENS FOR A
SAFE & SECURE RALEIGH

Pledging to Protect and Serve the Public

Raleigh needs a renewed commitment to public safety including sufficient staffing, competitive pay, and superior officers and standards. Raleigh City Council has a paramount duty to provide:

1. Appropriate Police Staffing

A sworn police force large enough to ensure the safety and security of residents, visitors, and businesses in every neighborhood.

2. Adequate Police Funding

Competitive pay, benefits, and working conditions to attract and retain excellent officers of all ranks.

3. Superior Officers

The best police training procedures and practices, and the highest professional ethics to bolster public accountability, confidence, and trust.

4. Adequate Police, Necessary Tools

State-of-the-art equipment and facilities to enable officers to work safely and effectively.

5. Homelessness Action

Promotion of innovative, caring solutions for the unhoused living and camping throughout our city.

6. Honor for Those Who Serve

Advocacy for their work, remembrance of the fallen, and support for their families.
